

Technical Credits

Join us in welcoming those responsible for the planning, production, direction and hosting of the Ashe County Armed Forces Tribute broadcast to be aired live 10:30-12:00 on UNC-TV 23 August 2008 and as a live webcast at 222.AsheCountyArmedForces.org.

Director Michael Sheehan has been producing and directing television programs for over 25 years. For the first fifteen years of his career, he worked exclusively in broadcast television, both public and commercial. For the past ten years, he has helped corporate clients design and implement multi-venue, interactive media events using satellite, cable, fiber and Internet delivery. These events have ranged in size from a single CEO interacting with distant financial analysts, to live, multi-venue, interactive events linking sites around the country and beyond. He has directed political debates and forums, presidential appearances, ACC sports, and a wide range of entertainment events from stand-up comics, to rock and roll, to symphony orchestras.

Sheehan lives in Chapel Hill with his wife, Jill. They are frequent visitors to West Jefferson, where they own property.

Director Tim Ruffin was educated at the North Carolina School of the Arts and spent 20 years in broadcast television with PBS before becoming a full-time freelancer. He has produced weekly series, documentaries, national news broadcasts, multi-camera productions, industrial and commercial event coverage, and sports programming across the US.

Clients include CBS, ABC, CNN, ESPN, and Comcast Sports. He is currently working for CBS 48 Hours and The Early Show. He is based in North Carolina where he lives with his wife and son.

Insert photo that I have for you to scan!

Host Jan Caddell is a 55 year veteran of the Broadcasting Industry. As President and General Manager of WKSK Radio in West Jefferson, NC, Jan is the voice of WKSK 580. He authors a quarterly publication (Cyberfax) for the NC Broadcasters Association and was inducted into the Association's Hall of Fame in 2002.

Co-Host Rebecca Pepin is a WCYB and Fox Tri-Cities news anchor and author. As a new American citizen (from Canada), she came up with the idea for Faces of Freedom as a way of saying thanks to the troops. Her special guests today are the family of the North Carolina Marine Sgt. Mark Adams, who is featured in her book.

Brian Lambeth, of Appal.net Creative Studios, provides the official website and orchestrates the live webcast.

Kim Hadley of Kim's Web Designs contributed hours of graphics design on the ads for this publication. Kim Hadley of Kim's Kreations. Kim's father, Dean Maheuron, served as a mechanic in the Air Force. She has been doing freelance graphic design for 8+ years. Among many volunteer activities, she is a Volunteer for The Nature Conservancy and National Committee for the New River, head of the West Jefferson Business Association and Secretary of the West Jefferson Community Partnership.

Wendy Cole _____ Wendy, you complete this....no arguing!

Armed Forces Network will be airing the 90-minute broadcast from the August 23 Tribute on the Pentagon Channel Labor Day weekend. This broadcast will air into military posts, bases, camps and ships in all 171 countries where US military personnel and civilian employees of the military are stationed. A special thanks to Thad Woodard of North Carolina Bankers Association, Van Krebbs and Major Robert Carver, NC National Guard, for their assistance in this honor.